

REMINDING YOU TO BE!

TOSIN
COKER

Author • Speaker • Workshop Leader • Radio Presenter

Bio:

“Gifted”, “invigorating”, “passionate” and “inspiring” are amongst the words audiences use to describe Tosin, both as a writer and speaker. In 1995, her innate talent for communication earned the attention of other experienced speakers, who enrolled her to join their ranks as an honorary doctor of metaphysics. Twelve years later, Tosin went on to become the UK's first African British science fiction author and continues to teach and empower via her "Remember to BE!" themed keynotes and workshops.

Tosin stimulates educates and entertains, injecting spiritual wisdom in a manner that audiences readily relate. As a result she has come to be highly regarded as a channel of knowledge and inspiration.

Tosin also calls upon her life experience as a inheritor of the Sickle Cell blood disorder. Daily she leads by example, actively affirming that "The only limitations are those set by the boundaries of the mind."

Popular Presentations:

Journey to Empowerment

Tally up your talents, you've come further than you've given yourself credit for. Now the trick is how to recognise what you need and discard what you don't.

The Awakening: Stepping Out of the Box

We are all born into expectations, many of which have no relevance to our experience. Are you ready to step out of the box?
